

CHARGE ALIENS BROKE PAROLE

D. Glechaskin, Mike Kroteski and Morris Gerber, enemy aliens, appeared in police court today and were handed over to the Royal North West Mounted Police for breach of parole.

The men were arrested by police Friday. They are alleged to have played cards in a public place. "Disorderly on the street" was the police charge preferred against them. They pleaded not guilty.