

About one hundred more foreigners, interned at Fort Henry, Kingston, were moved to Hearst, where they will be put to work on the new roads and bridges that are being constructed in New Ontario.