

HUNDRED PRISONERS TO WORK IN THE WOODS

Will Be Taken From the Fort on Monday Under Escort.

One hundred more prisoners of war are to be sent from Toronto to the McPherson detention camp in Northern Ontario at the beginning of next week. Of the 100, ten have been confined in Stanley Barracks, and 90, who will join the party in Toronto, have been held at Fort Henry, Kingston. The prisoners are all Germans and two Turks may also be sent.

It is expected that before the end of the war 1,000 prisoners will be quartered there.

Dr. Ervin Kohlmann, former employe of the Works Department, will be the only prisoner left in Stanley Barracks as a result of this exodus. He is now treated as an officer prisoner of war.

About 80 men of the divisional ammunition park will come into the Exhibition camp, probably on Sunday.

D Company of the 20th Battalion, or rural regiments, went out to Cedarvale to-day to learn the art of attack. This company, which is composed of men of the 97th Regiment, Sault Ste. Marie, and 35th Regiment, Barrie, will be used as a model. To-morrow the whole battalion under the command of Lieut.-Col. J. A. W. Allan will go to Cedarvale.

May Use Process Building.

Estimates are now being made with a view to preparing the Process Building for the reception of troops when that should become necessary. Two thousand men can be quartered in the building.

The medical examination for members of the 12th Regiment, York Rangers, volunteering for overseas service in the third contingent will commence this evening at their armories, St. Paul's Hall, 858 Yonge street, and will continue each afternoon and evening until the full quota has been selected. The regiment now has 42 officers who have volunteered for overseas service.

The auto machine-gun section, which is to have 40 cars, now has 250 applicants from which to select its men, and the first medical examination will be held Saturday night. It is expected that most of the men will go into Exhibition camp Monday. The men for the Eaton Battery of 15 cars are first to be selected.

A claim that rifle shots were heard on the waterfront during the night was reported to the military authorities to-day, and an investigation was promptly started. The report said that the shots came from the vicinity of Stanley Barracks and went in the direction of the wireless station, which is under military guard at the Island.

A squadron of the 9th Mississauga Horse has been called to complete the strength of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards of Ottawa.

University Men Accepted.

The University Company of the Queen's Own Rifles has volunteered and been accepted in a body for active service. The members of the Officers' Training Corps are still anxiously waiting the results of the Christmas examination for lieutenantcies.

There are now seven Forestry students with the Second contingent, the three latest to join the Intelligence Corps being F. C. Mayberry, Ralph Williams, and Sid Williams. The Classical Association will lose its President, Mr. E. D. Hosker, who has joined the 19th Battalion of the second contingent. Mr. H. E. Kemp will act as President during his absence.
