

Soldier Fell from Train

(Special to The Gazette.)

Ottawa, July 2.—Pte. Arthur J. Hale, a soldier, serving in connection with the internment of aliens, fell off the train on the National Transcontinental between Cochrane and McPherson to-day and was killed. The telegram to the Department of Railways giving particulars of the accident states that Hale had no relatives in Canada, but had friends living in Toronto.