

PREPARING SUPPLIES FOR INTERNMENT CAMPS FOR THE APPROACHING WINTER

As there is no prospect of an early termination of the war, General Sir William Otter, who has charge of the internment camps, is making preparations for another winter. Supplies of warm clothing and other necessaries are being ordered for the camps in various parts of the country.

A Ruthenian priest has been appointed to minister to the Austrians in the camps at Spirit Lake, in Quebec, and Kapuskasing, in Ontario. He will spend his time between the two places.

A few of the interned prisoners at Kapuskasing have been liberated recently. They were able to show that they were only passing through Canada from one part of the United States to another and that they had taken out American naturalization papers.
