

KAPUSKASING OFFICERS ENTERTAIN.

Col. Clark and the officers commanding at Kapuskasing internment camp gave a delightful entertainment at the officers mess on the holiday, the guests arriving on the National on Sunday afternoon and returning Monday evening. The guests were astonished at the wonderful progress which Col. Clark and his able staff have made the neatness of the camp buildings the cleanliness order and excellent sanitary conditions. Among the officers stationed at Kapuskasing at present are Col. Clark, Captains Wakcy and Henderson, Lieutenants, Garnett, Dr. Clegg, McIntosh, Colley, Price, Wright.

The Officers' wives, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Garrett, were indefatigable in their attentions to their guests. The mess pavillion, a splendid building erected mainly by the prisoners interned, was beautiful illuminated for the occasion, with chinese lanterns and presented a charming vista, surrounded as it is by beautiful trees near the banks of the picturesque Kapuskasing River.

During the evening an orchestra rendered the following musical programme which was accompanied by songs and chorus.
