

Back To Internment Camp

Belleville, Ont., July 11.—W. Woyewidka, an enemy alien, who was brought from Kapuskasing internment camp to work at the Point Anne cement works, and was later arrested and held on a nominal charge of vagrancy at the request of the Dominion Police, left this afternoon, in charge of an officer, to return to Kapuskasing, the charge of vagrancy having been dropped and the Dominion authorities desiring to have him returned to the camp for an investigation as to his movements.
