

"TED HANNAN" HULSE DIES.

John ("Ted Hannan") Hulse has fallen a victim to the prevailing malady. While doing guard duty at a northern ~~internment~~ camp he was taken ill, and after three days succumbed, his death taking place on Sunday last. The body will be brought to Toronto, and the funeral will take place from his home at 17 Bloor st. west. Although not actively engaged in athletics he was one of the best-known boys in the north end of the city. He was formerly a student at St. Michael's College.
