

RESIGNS AS A. A. G.

Col. John I. McLaren Retires Before Starting Kapuskasing Inquiry.

Col. John Inglis McLaren will end his long and useful career in the army at the end of this month. He will relinquish his present position as A. A. G. of Military District No. 2 to take up the work with the Provincial Government on the Commission ap-

Col. J. I. McLaren pointed to make enquiries on the conditions at the Kapuskasing Soldiers Settlement.

His work at Military Headquarters will be taken over by Lieut.-Col. R. J. Brooke, O.B.E., D.S.O., who was doing divisional staff work with the Canadians in France.
