

Major C. V. Campbell returned to-day from Toronto, where he had gone in charge of the party guarding the eleven Austrian prisoners that were removed from the Sault in the first part of the week.