

INTERPRETER CHARGED WITH DISLOYAL ACTION

ACCUSED OF RECEIVING MONEY FROM AUSTRIANS—SENT FOR TRIAL.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 21.—

On a charge of receiving money from Austrians to secure their release from internment, Sergt. Friedman, who has worked in the capacity of interpreter at the Armory of the 51st Soo Rifles in this city, was arraigned before Magistrate Elliott this morning at the instigation of the Dominion Immigration Department at Ottawa, who had representatives here to-day to attend the case. Crown Attorney J. F. S. Martin appearing for the department. After taking evidence all day Magistrate Elliott sent Friedman for trial in the District Court, and admitted him to bail in $2,000. Friedman says it is a frame-up on him, and is preparing to fight the case. Mayor J. A. McPhail is representing Friedman.

GERMAN SUB. BASE ON GUERNSEY ISLAND

30 SUPPOSED FISHERMEN FOUND, IT IS REPORTED, TO BE GER- MAN NAVY MEN.

New York, Sept. 21.—That Germany secretly established a submarine base on Guernsey Island, in the English Channel, and that thirty supposed fishermen captured there, proved to be enlisted men in the German navy, was the information brought to New York to-day by Frank S. Perr of Ithaca, N.Y., who arrived on the liner Minnehaha.

"These 'fishermen' were caught setting cases of petrol adrift for the submarines to pick up," said Mr. Perr. "They probably will be shot."

"It is reported in England that twenty-eight German submarines have been caught in steel nets set by the British."
