

Ten Austrians came down on the Noronic this morning from Fort William. They were met at the dock by police court interpreter Meratchnik and taken to the Steel Plant, where they have been employed.