

On Thursday last an Austrian who has been causing considerable trouble at the interim camp at Petawawa of late was brought to Pembroke under an armed guard of six men. During the short time that he had been at Petawawa he had been confined to the guard-house on several occasions. He was brought to Pembroke for brutally assaulting a fellow Austrian and appearing before Police Magistrate Stewart was remanded for a week.