Austrian Pleads Guilty to Four Charges of Theft—Had no Money and Few Clothes.

Kost Sarnock, an Austrian, who was unable to speak English, roomed at a house at 19 Somerset street. Being out of work and having very little clothing and less money, he started to steal for a living. There were other boarders in the house, and they suffered. At last they became tired and notified the police. Sarnock was arrested and four charges of theft were laid against him.

Through his counsel, Mr. M. J. Marlon, he pleaded guilty in police court this morning. Mr. Marlon asked the magistrate for mercy, saying that he thought the ends of justice would be met if a sentence was suspended, and as the prisoner had neither food nor clothing he be interned at the alien camp at Petawawa.

Magistrate O'Keefe found that he could not let the Austrian go unpunished, so inflicted a month's sentence in each case, the sentences to run consecutively. The magistrate said that he would notify the Dominion Police, and likely Sarnock will be interned at Petawawa Camp at the expiration of his term.
