

An Austrian prisoner escaped from the Petawawa camp last week, and so far no trace of him has been found. Another Austrian was put in the lock-up here that night and held to identify the escaped prisoner, but he was let out the following evening. Thos. J. Kelly was arrested early Friday morning charged with being drunk and unable to take care of himself, and paid a fine and costs amounting to $5.50. George Kearns, arrested by C. P. R. Constable Pyle at Chalk River for stealing a ride on a train was found on arrival here to be suffering from an injured foot. He was let off on suspended sentence by the Magistrate and taken to the General Hospital for treatment.
