

The Observer has heard it reported this week that the Russian staff at the Petawawa camp is to be increased and that three new houses are to be erected for officers who are to come to Canada shortly.