

NO TROUBLE AT PEMBROKE.Dominion Police Discount Reports of German Spy System.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Ottawa, Dec. 1.—The Dominion Police authorities here place little credence in the reports from Pembroke of the existence in that vicinity of a well-defined German spy system. The statements made are not taken very seriously, though every precaution is, of course, being taken to ascertain their truth. "Such reports have come to us frequently before, but they have always proved imaginary upon investigation," said a prominent member of the Dominion Police to-day. "We have had no trouble whatever at Pembroke since the war broke out."

JUST ONE IN WELLINGTON.

London, Ont., Dec. 1.—One overseas battalion only, instead of two, is to be raised in Wellington county, according to official word received at divisional headquarters here from Ottawa to-day. Lieut. Craig of Quelph will command the unit.
