

It is understood that a hundred more men are soon to be added to the guard doing duty at Petawawa detention camp. The prisoners are growing restless and at times show a disposition to be ugly, and it is felt that a stronger guard is a necessity. Some little trouble has occurred lately, but it has not been of a serious nature.