

Hold Route March to Cedarvale.

The five battalions at Exhibition Camp, together with the Divisional Cyclists, took part in a route march and a tactical scheme on a small scale to-day. Each battalion left the camp independently and reached the rendezvous, Cedarvale, by separate routes, which the commanding officers of each unit had mapped out. The operations were carried out under the direction of Col. W. C. Macdonald and Lieut.-Col. P. L. Mason, C.V.O., of the 1st Brigade staff. The infantrymen were not accompanied on the march by any of the four batteries which arrived yesterday from ~~Petawawa~~, as, owing to the drafts which each of them have just sent overseas, they are considerably under strength. The units taking part were the 198th (Buffs), 204th (Beavers), 208th (Irish), 220th (York), and the 234th (Peel).
