

RECRUITED AUSTRIANS.

A recruiting station was opened for Austrians at Welland, where many men of that nationality have been employed on the Canal. Ten men who had enlisted and were returning to fight for their country were stopped at Niagara Falls and sent back. Major Rose is investigating and the men may be made prisoners of war.