

Suspicious of This German.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Nov. 21.—In Demler, a German reservist who was arrested by the immigration authorities, the latter believe they have made an important capture. Demler has been travelling through Canada and several European countries, and it is believed he is in the employ of the German Government. He claimed to be a Swede, said he was on his way home, and produced a steamship ticket to Stockholm, Sweden.
