

Frank Flourh, who claims to be a Russian Pole, was found prowling around the pickle factory on Murray street last night, and being unable to give an account of himself, was fined $4 and costs and was turned over to the military authorities.