

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont.—A German resident of St. Catharines, who was arrested and interned yesterday, had in his possession a complete list of factories in the vicinity for making shells for the allies, together with considerable other data that would be useful to the German government.