

TREASON TRIAL AT WELLAND

Solomon David and F Herman, Austrian Jews, were again charged before Magistrate Burgar at Welland yesterday and committed for trial at the September assizes.

They are charged with treason by sending money to Austria through agents in New York. They were let out on $1000 bail.

Mr. McCoomb of Welland was the defending lawyer, and Crown Attorney Cowper prosecuted. Sergt. J. W. Sterne of the local armory acted as interpreter.
