

DEGENERATE TURK IS INTERNED

Eli George, a Turk, born in Jerusalem, was in police court to-day, charged with assault on a nine-year-old boy. He pleaded not guilty, but on evidence was found guilty and turned over to the military authorities for internment until after the war. Mr. Cowper, of Welland, appeared for the crown, and Sergt. J. W. Sterne, of the armouries, acted as interpreter.

The offence was committed in a store on Clifton avenue and the little boy told his father and mother, who laid an information and swore out a warrant for the man's arrest.
