

About one hundred more foreigners, interned at Fort Henry, Kingston, were yesterday moved to Hearst where they will be put to work on the new roads and bridges that are being constructed in New Ontario.

---

Major-General Hughes left Ottawa yesterday on an inspection trip in the Maritime Provinces. Before leaving he advised that Mr. Henri Bourassa should be allowed to talk as much as he chose, as he could "not hurt either Canada or the Empire."

---

The number of alien prisoners now interned at Patawawa is two hundred and seventy, which will be increased within the week to 800.