

Two prisoners of war have been paroled from Fort Henry on a bond furnished by a Kingston merchant.

An official Austrian report shows that there were 423 cases of typhus fever in Austria during the first week of February. It is reported that smallpox is spreading in Vienna.