

A clergyman who comes from Ottawa to preach to Germans in Fort Henry, may have his permit cancelled, it is reported, owing to his rather strong German sympathies. He had been conducting service every week, but he is allowed now to officiate only once a month.