

BETTER OFF IN FORT HENRY.

Kingston, Ont., Aug. 14. — Two Germans who were some time ago released from the Fort Henry Internment camp on parole and have been working on farms in Leeds county applied to Kingston Chief of Police to be allowed to go back to the Fort. They are out of work. The Germans say they envy the good treatment given their fellows in the Fort.