

RATHER NO IMPROVEMENTS THAN USE OF ALIEN LABOR

By Canadian Press.

Kingston, Ont., May 31.—Local labor unions put in a strong protest to the city council over the proposal of the board of works to have the German prisoners of war at Fort Henry employed on street paving, owing to the great scarcity of labor. They asked that the proposed paving be allowed to stand over until after the war.