

More War Prisoners.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 6. — There is now a regular village at Fort Henry, 27 more prisoners of war having been brought to Kingston from Montreal, making the total enrollment 360. The men are putting in the most of their time at soccer football and have of late given their guards no trouble.