

German Agents Close Offices.

MONTREAL, August 19.—One effect of war has been that agents in Montreal representing German houses have in many instances closed their establishments, throwing a considerable number of people out of work.