

GERMAN WAR SONGS SUNG IN MONTREAL BY PRISONERS OF WAR

MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—The streets and railroad stations here echoed and re-echoed today to the sound of the German war songs sung by fifty German prisoners of war. The men have been held here for some time but were today transferred to Kingston to be held as prisoners until the end of the war. They were taken there in a special car attached to a regular train.

Provost Marshall Dale is in charge of the military guard.
