

PRISONERS OF WAR AT MASS.

Catholic prisoners of war confined in the military prison, which is in connection with the Immigration Office, St. Antoine street, assisted in a body at the mass, which Rev. Dr. J. Perepelycia celebrated yesterday morning at 6.30 o'clock. Rev. Father Perepelycia, who is in charge of the Ruthenian Catholics in this city, some days ago made application to the Honorable C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, for permission to attend to the religious needs of the Catholic alien-foreigners now interned here.
