

BOUCHARD NOT A SPY.

Jean Bouchard, arrested on the mountain last week on suspicion of being a German spy, was yesterday released under orders from Mr. C. G. Ogden, registrar of enemy aliens. After a careful examination of his papers, it was found that there was nothing incriminating in them, and that Bouchard was a native of the Duchy of Luxembourg, a neutral state.