

The first conviction for treason has been made in Canada. The offender, one Shafer, of Montreal, and a ticket agent, undertook to help his countrymen, the Austrians. Men have been shot for treason in England and Ireland. What will happen to Shafer in Canada?