

Interns Gone

The last of the interned foreigners have been removed from Petawawa and the camp is being gotten into shape for the thousands of Canada's fighting men.

By the last of this month 5000 artillery men will be training at this camp and there will no doubt be many more before the summer is over.

The interns have been taken to the camps further north at Spirit Lake and Kapuskasing.