Is Accused of Helping Aliens to Escape From Internment Camp at Amherst.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

FREDERICKTON, N.B., Feb. 13.

—An officer from New Brunswick, who has been on duty at the internment camp at Amherst, N.S., for alien enemies, has been under arrest for some days on charges in connection with the escape of eleven Germans from the camp recently.

The officer in question was a member of the 74th Regiment and formerly lived in Kings county, but before taking up his military duties at Halifax with the composite battalion, was living in Frederickton. From Halifax he was transferred to Amherst. The military authorities refuse to give out any information on the case.
