

All Blasting in Ports Must Cease

Nervous Citizens Alarmed at Explosions, Fearing German Attack

By Canadian Press.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—An order has been issued by the Government prohibiting contractors from blasting on public works in seaport towns. The order is the result of complaints from St. John and Halifax. Nervous citizens were alarmed at loud explosions during the night, fearing attacks from Germans.