

WAS IN GERMAN NAVY

Reservist Arrested in Campbellton for Suspicious Movements

Moncton, N.B., February 24.—Reinhold Reidel, who says he is a German naval reservist, has been arrested by a special agent of the I. C. R. as an alien enemy and was brought to Moncton from Campbellton today. He will be sent to the detention camp at Halifax. When arrested the German had on him a package of letters and plans of highway bridges, railway tracks and bridges through the Mata-pedia Valley. Reidel talked freely to the officer.

Reidel says he was born in Hamburg, Germany, October 15, 1880. He joined the German navy in 1895 and left the service in 1910. He was three years on the training ship Stois and spent one year on the battle-cruiser Odin, three years on the small cruiser Geier and eight years in coast defence work and training ships. He came to Canada in 1911. He had been acting in a suspicious manner around Campbellton and Stottville.