

DETROIT GIRL PRO-GERMAN

Soldier's Wife Resented Her Remarks
And Notified Police.

Stratford, Dec. 18.—If Miss Cecelia Ronan of Detroit, just now thought to be in Toronto, comes back to Stratford to complete her visit to friends here she will have to pay a ten dollar fine and police court costs. Miss Ronan, while in a corner store in the east end, is alleged to have boldly declared: "The Germans will win. I hope they do, and crush John Bull." The wife of a soldier now in the trenches resented the remark and notified the police. A summons was issued for Miss Ronan, and when she failed to appear in court yesterday a fine of $10 and costs was entered against her name. Her hostess declares she does not know where the girl went, but the police believe she went to Toronto.
