

TOO MANY GERMANS AROUND HALIFAX

Herald Demands that They Be Confined.

HALIFAX, July 6. — Since the sinking of the hospital ship Llandovery Castle the Halifax Herald has been carrying on a vigorous editorial campaign against enemy aliens, who have been enjoying the freedom of the city since the outbreak of the war.

Enemy aliens, the Herald alleges, who have no regular occupations, are in constant association with sailors and soldiers, watching marine movements.

Calls It An Outrage.

In the course of a leading article the Herald says today, in part:

"This newspaper was informed yesterday that a woman, a native born of Germany, whose husband is also a German and at the present time a prisoner in the internment camp at Amherst, is allowed to parade the streets of Halifax, to enjoy every freedom of the city, and is associating with naval and military men. This is not the only case which could be cited. To allow this state of affairs to continue is an outrage on common sense. It is a direct courting of danger.

"For which conceivable reason are alien enemies allowed their untrammelled freedom in this city?

Must Throw Off Lethargy.

"The authorities must throw off all lethargy in this matter and cooperate with the civic authorities in rounding up these dangerous, loafing aliens whose presence constitutes so great a menace. British lives are precious. Our doctors, our nurses, and our men surely have the first and every claim upon us. Ships too are of exceeding great value to the Allies.

Too Many Germans.

"Why in the name of all that is sane and reasonable should lives and ships be jeopardized because the authorities allow Hun spies the free run of this city?

"The local spies must go. Halifax must be purged of treachery."
