

Major General Otter, who has charge of all the alien internment camps in Canada, visited the Vernon prison last Thursday. His trip was a brief one as he came in by the morning train, which was a couple of hours late that day, and left the same afternoon.