

PRISONERS SENT AWAY.

Twenty-five German and Austrian prisoners were removed to the internment camp at Vernon yesterday. Several of these were Austrians, who had registered with the police, but had been arrested for talking too much.