

Fifty Austrian prisoners for the new Internment Camp at Edgewood are leaving this week, and the same number will be sent to Monashee, which will bring the total of alien prisoners at work on the road there up to about 200 men.