

Military Take War Prisoners—

Four prisoners of war were turned over to the military by the police on Monday night, and sent under escort to the internment camp at Vernon.