

Awaiting Orders From Ottawa—

Pending the receipt of orders from Ottawa concerning the accused, John Anderson, alias Adolf Smitz, the man who made a sensational escape from a P. G. E. train some two years ago, and who since made a successful getaway from the internment camp, was remanded for eight days. It is believed by the authorities that Smitz was helped in his escape from the camp, and investigations are being made to discover the accomplice.