

Looking After Austrian Interests—

Carl D. O'Dardell, consul-general for Sweden in Canada, who is at the request of his government looking after the interests of Austrian subjects in this country during the absence of their own representatives, is expected here next week on a trip of inspection of the internment camp at Vernon and will take up a number of matters regarding the interests of Austrian subjects in British Columbia.