

GERMAN HAD FLANS OF BRIDGES AND TRACKS

The Globe (1844-1936); Feb 25, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 9

GERMAN HAD PLANS OF BRIDGES AND TRACKS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 24.—Reinhold Reidel, who says he is a German naval reservist, was arrested to-day by I. C. R. Special Agent A. J. Tingley of this city as an allen enemy. When arrested the German had on his person a package of letters and plans of highway bridges, railway tracks and bridges through the Matapedia Valley.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.