

A Berlin man by the name of Meyer, who was incarcerated last month for uttering pro-German sentiments, will likely be freed at once. Hon. I. B. Lucas, Attorney-General, has received advices from the Militia Department that as the man has been in jail for nearly a month, he has probably been punished sufficiently.